Here is our team's kanban board

Explanation for prioritization

Add assignment, automatic suggestion, assignment update popup, drag and drop, and assignment detail sidebar are all classified higher than the ones in the To Do section because they all have to do with the most bare features of the app for it to be considered somewhat functional the rest on the left are still required but it would be best to start with assignment adding and move up from there.